Law and Murder on the Payroll Express

We would like to invite our speakers to attend the evening Social Event on Thursday, October 15th. The social event starts 6:30 pm with a sit down dinner and just about the time dessert is to be served the Random Acts Mystery actors will begin to perform.

If you are able to stay and attend the event be sure to complete this section of your registration form. You will also need to mark your dinner selection of a Chicken or Vegetarian entrée.

This is sure to be an interesting social as we discover the excitement and intrigue of "Law and Murder on the Payroll Express". Combining a love of payroll with a passion for whodunits, this event will offer captivating, interactive entertainment.

The 2009 Virginia Statewide Payroll Conference Committees hopes you will be able to join us for a spine-tingling evening of investigative fun that you won't soon forget! Boarding begins at 6:30 pm sharp.

Speaker Registration

We have received confirmation several speakers have registered and we thank your for registering early. Early registration assists the committee with meeting the attendee booklet publication deadline. In addition to meeting our publication date it offer us the opportunity to include a brief outline of each speaker in the attendee newsletters.

If you have not registered we would like to remind you to please register as soon as possible but no later than June 30, 2009. You can register by visiting the VSPC website or complete the registration form e-mailed to you earlier this month.

We will follow-up after the registration with the conference agenda, and floor plans of the hotel. We look forward to having you with us and hope you will return in future years.

Sheri Green and Betty Noell are the committee members dedicated to making your APA experience with us a pleasant one. If you should have any questions you can reach Sheri Green at 540-853-8026 or Betty Noell at 540-853-8090.

Hotel Roanoke History

The Railroad
City Hotel
1882

Roanoke was a little town named Big Lick when enterprising railroad magnate Frederick J. Kimball chose it as the site of a railroad juncture and a major city. After Kimball combined two of his railroads into the Norfolk and Western Railroad, he built his vision of a comprehensive community with the Hotel Roanoke as its grand centerpiece. Travelers coming to the city or breaking a tiring rail journey made the Hotel Roanoke their haven.
